

Biography

Dr Harish Mallapura Maheshwarappa, MBBS,MD, DNB, IDCCM, DM, EDIC, MBA

Consultant – In charge (academics)

Department of Critical Care Medicine

Mazumdar Shaw Medical Center

Narayana Hrudayalaya-Bengaluru

Completed MBBS from prestigious Govt medical college Mysore in the year 2007, after that he completed his MD from Govt medical college Nagpur (Maharashtra) in the year 2011. In the same year he cleared DNB from National Board of Examination, New Delhi. In 2012 he completed Indian Diploma in Critical Care Medicine from Narayana Hrudayalaya Bengaluru.

In the year 2012 he joined Tata Memorial Hospital Mumbai as DM- Critical Care Medicine resident and he graduated with honor of India's first MCI recognized DM in Critical Care Medicine. After that he served as specialist Intensivist in Tata Memorial Hospital for one year.

In the year 2015 he cleared his European Diploma in intensive Care Medicine From Dublin.

Later he worked as the head of the department of Critical Care Medicine in Yashoda Hospital Hyderabad for about one and half year.

He is having many publications in international and national indexed journals, he is also a well known faculty in many national and international conferences and workshops.

During his carrier he won many awards, recognition certificates and grants.

He organized many conferences and workshops in critical care medicine, currently he is training FNB and IDCCM students in critical care medicine.

As special interest he done his MBA in Hospital Management ,and he is directly and indirectly supporting to uplift respiratory therapy branch as one of the major allied health science in supporting critically ill patients in ICU.

Since December 2017 he is working as Consultant and In charge in the department of Critical Care Medicine Mazumdar Shaw Medical Center, Narayana Health City Bengaluru.