

Biography

Dr. Radha Rani, MD,
HOD Microbiology & Chief Infection Control Officer,
Basavatarakam Indo American cancer Hospital
Hyderabad, Telangana.

Dr. Radha Rani Dandamudi completed her M.B.B.S from Mysore University in 1992 and M.D from B.J Medical college & Sasoon General hospitals, Pune in 1996. She worked as a lecture in B.J medical college and then Joined at Lady Hardinge Medical college & Kalawathi saran Childrens hospital, N. Delhi for senior Residency from 1997-1999.

Later she worked as a Microbiologist for New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) for 2 years and joined Indraprastha Apollo Hospitals, N. Delhi as a Consultant in Microbiology and an Infection control officer. Presently she is working in BIACH & RI since 2012 as Head of Microbiology & Chief Infection Control Officer. She is an active member in many other Institutional committees of the hospital. She is a coordinator for NABL related activities of the labs. She is actively involved in the NABH certification and other hospital certification programmes. She is a Certified JCI internal auditor, had undergone NABH Entry level assessor training course & a course on Health care Quality Management. She has more than 25 years of experience in the field of Clinical microbiology with a particular focus on Infection control & Antimicrobial resistance. She has worked for prevention of HIV/AIDS in High risk group & especially amongst the marginal areas namely slums, migrant labor, street children & economically poor class, for which she received an award from Delhi State AIDS Control Society, Government of NCT of Delhi in 2001.

Dr. Radha Rani has organized workshops & CMEs as part of National conferences & delivered lectures at various National conferences. To her credit, she has peer reviewed publications in various National & International journals and also published – research papers. She is also a guide to MSc Microbiology students and a co guide to M.D students and is part of Multi centric studies. She is a life member of professional bodies like the Indian Association of Medical Microbiologists, Indian Society for Anti microbial Chemotherapy & Hospital Infection Society, India.